Overview

The institute includes lectures, discussion, and guided practice in role-plays. Active and practical in focus, the sessions emphasize hands-on skills training and real-life role-plays based on the kinds of conflicts faced by participants. A more detailed description of the sessions is available upon request.

Location

Kinsmen Lutheran Church
12100 Champion Forest Drive
Houston, Texas

Kinsmen Lutheran Church is in northwest Houston, about 30 to 45 minutes west of George Bush Intercontinental Airport: west of I-45; north of Sam Houston Tollway; east of Tomball Parkway/Rte. 249.

Meals and Accommodations

Daily refreshments and lunches on Monday and Friday are included. Participants will need to arrange for their own lodging as well as all other meals. Lodging options, directions, and a registrant list will be sent with confirmation of registration, after the pre-registration deadline.

Tuition

Tuition is $695 when paid by August 17 and $770 if received after that date. Participants receive a training manual and other materials upon arrival. Cancellations are subject to a $75 non-refundable fee if the Texas-Louisiana Gulf Coast Synod is notified at least two weeks prior to the institute, or half of the registration fee otherwise. Enrollment is limited, so register early. Send form and full payment.

Trainer

Richard Blackburn is the Executive Director of the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center. LMPC desires to equip others to be ministers of reconciliation in daily life. Richard has led hundreds of workshops on conflict transformation and mediation skills, and serves as a mediator and consultant for individuals, churches, schools, and other organizations.

Everyone Has to Deal with Conflict

Conflict is normal and inevitable – whether in the home, school, community, church or workplace. Leaders in all walks of life often have a responsibility to help others work through their conflicts.

The Mediation Skills Training Institute presented by the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center (LMPC) is designed to equip church leaders with the skills necessary to deal effectively with interpersonal, congregational, and other forms of group conflict. The five-day institute also includes a component on congregational mediation and consultation, placed within the context of family systems theory.

Although focused primarily on the church setting, the skills learned are directly transferable to other settings. Thus managers in business, attorneys, experienced mediators, and others in leadership will be enriched by the training as well.

Who Will Benefit

- ♦ PASTORS and INTERIM PASTORS of all denominations — to enhance skills for managing conflict in the church.
- ♦ JUDICATORY LEADERS — Bishops and Synod Staff; District Superintendents; Area Ministers; Presbytery, Conference, Regional and Diocesan Staff — to assist pastors and congregations in handling conflicts.
- ♦ DENOMINATIONAL OFFICIALS and CHURCH CONSULTANTS — to bring healing in the midst of divisive church fights.
- ♦ LAY LEADERS, MUTUAL MINISTRY and PASTOR-PARISH COMMITTEE MEMBERS — to receive valuable leadership training to benefit the church, while also gaining insight for peaceful conflict transformation in the home.
- ♦ ADMINISTRATORS — to introduce conflict transformation to the organizations they oversee.
- ♦ MANAGERS and SUPERVISORS — to help workers diminish conflict and enhance productivity.
- ♦ COLLEGE and SEMINARY STUDENTS — to gain hands-on skills training not typically offered in regular classes.
- ♦ ATTORNEYS — to gain skills in alternative dispute resolution procedures.
- ♦ COMMUNITY MEDIATION CENTER STAFF and VOLUNTEERS — to acquire additional skills in a transformational model of mediation for working with both individuals and groups.

“All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.”
- 2 Corinthians 5:18
